

Paying for services on satellite radio should offer us some advantages. That's why we pay. No worthless commercials and the programming we desire.